Presidential Prattle

I've managed a relatively quiet start to the year so far, as at the time of writing this article I haven't actually managed any events where I've driven a car in 2010! This seems in some way rather unnatural.

This is not to say that there hasn't been anything going on in the area, as that would be impossible, improbably, implausible and other things starting with imp. Obviously not a Hillman Imp, because that would be very hard to start.

I decided that I wasn't going to enter the January Port Road event, as I really need to spend some money doing stuff to the Pulsar, rather than doing stuff in the Pulsar. I've got some new suspension to be installed and certified, and my tarmac tyres are getting a bit elderly (they were well and truly old when I was given them about five years ago).

However it would seem that almost everyone else in Wellington decided to enter Port Road, with over 50 entries.

I did head along to do some spectating, and took a couple of photo's from the Chicane. Proving conclusively that I'm seriously out of practice with the camera, as I kept taking photos of fractions of cars, rather than entire cars.

The HVMC boys were having a good play at Port Road, with Bruce Dove, and Adam Bligh arriving into corners in clouds of tyre smoke. Murray O'Neil had entered twice in his yellow Evo, and was attacking the course with large amounts of violence and enthusiasm. At one stage he actually managed to arrive sideways, hit the barrel, then leave sideways. Now that's dedication.

Webster was the fastest HCCC entry bringing the Starlet Turbo home in 5th overall, with a time of 93.37. Not bad in a car running severely out of tune, and that was put back together late on the Saturday before the event.

Pete Collins was 6th with an unbelievable 93.87 in his naturally aspirated 1600cc Corolla, which won him the very popular 1301-1600cc class. Like Webster, Pete is just getting quicker and quicker.

5th through to 9th was an all HCCC affair, with Loren Brookes (Sti), Al Groves (Sti) and Adrian Marsden (Integra) filling in the rest of the places.

Tim Sillay wins the “That man deserves a beer” award. He busted and changed a gearbox, then did the rest of the day without first gear according to rumour. Oh yeah, and he won the event anyway. Unfortunately at the Wallaceville Hill event he turned the red 240RS into somewhat of a cube of scrap metal during a very high speed off (fourth gear).

I'm not sure what happened to the John Johnston / David Ragen Silvia, as the results beside that car turned into a series of DNF and DNS, so I'm sure there's going to be a story there (hint hint, tell us the story).

Thomas Rumball seems to have been driving Lisa's GTR Familia rather than his usual "Spud" the RX323. He can't have been suffering too badly though, as he brought the car home in the top half of the field.

Chelles was the fastest lady, with the Cyborg finishing in 5th place in class, a couple of places ahead in the overall results of Lisa driving her GTR Familia.

In the Dick vs Shane battle of the Pensioner Pulsars, old age and cunning was always going to be the winner on the day. In this case Dick was one place ahead of Shane. The battle will continue I'm sure.

There were a couple of really interesting cars that are totally new to me flying HCCC colours on the day. Tim Steeneken was entered in an SW20 MR2, powered by a V6 Camry engine, and Nigel Somerfield has an N15 Pulsar running the 1600cc NEO motor, with a hairdryer slapped on the side. Both of these cars are stealth modified, and snuck entirely under my radar at scrutineering.

My "what the hell is that" award of the day goes to Stephen Heise, who was racing a six cylinder Falcon. Oh boy, does he need to bring that out to the www.photoworks.co.nz Slipway Autocross challenge. We might need to make the course a bit wider though.

My first event for the year was being in the silly seat with Alex Baker at the Barton's Line Rallysprint.

We had a fairly unpromising start to the day, running wide on practice run and beaching the Corolla off the side of the road. That meant for infinity -1 on the stress scale.

However, we were towed out with no apparent damage to the car, and carried on for the rest of the day and got faster on every run of the day.

I've actually not seen the results for the day, so I can't tell you a heck of a lot about what happened! But from my point of view, it was a hell of a lot of fun. The Corolla seems quite a predictable car on gravel, enough grunt, and really good drive out of corners. I'd love a diff like the one in that car!

With Victor and Alex both racing the Corolla, it was in constant use during the day. It got about enough time to splash some gas in it, then check the oil. At the end of the day the inside row of knobbles on both front tyres were completely missing! Not merely worn out, but actually not there at all.

Our AGM was a fairly low key meeting, with the same committee being re-elected, with Adam Fisher being added (since he comes to all the committee meetings anyway!).

We're planning a dinner or suchlike to celebrate our 40th year (this year).

So we want your nostalgia!!!!

If you've got old photo's or magazines, please talk to Jilly or Len, and we can get some retro bits in the magazines this year.

Once again, I will also repeat my usual begging

WE NEED YOU TO WRITE SOMETHING FOR THE MAGAZINE!

IT CAN BE ANYTHING AT ALL

EVEN A PARAGRAPH OR A PHOTO WOULD BE GREAT!

A couple of events to keep a watch out for:

14th March, Mt Victoria sprint

21st March, the first Slipway Autocross event

28th March – watch this space. Levin hasn't been able to secure a venue for their autocross, so it might turn into a short notice HVMC Silverstream Autocross

TBC: 40th Anniversary Dinner!

August: HCCC will need a team of willing timers / marshals for the round of the Road and Track series running that month.

Best of luck to our team going down to the Clubsport Nationals! Neil Roots (City), Graham Heath (Pulsar), and Al Groves (Charade).

That's it from me, see you all out there at an event somewhere.

Hi Len

I have a little joke thing for you to pop in the magazine if you would like.

It's something I actually over heard which made me laugh good and long.

"1st girl: Is it always sunny above the clouds?

2nd girl: Yeah I saw it when I flew to Sydney.

1st girl: Wow I thought they went all the way to outer space.

2nd girl: Nooo, there is no oxygen up there how would they survive?"

Kind regards

Chelles Roberts.

TEACHER: Winnie, name one important thing we have today that we didn't have ten years ago.

ACTUAL AUSTRALIAN COURT DOCKET 12659 ---CASE OF THE PREGNANT LADY

A lady about 8 months pregnant got on a bus. She noticed the man opposite her was smiling at her.

She immediately moved to another seat. This time the smile turned into a grin, so she moved again.

The man seemed more amused. When on the fourth move, the man burst out laughing, she complained to the driver and he had the man arrested.

The case came up in court.

The judge asked the man (about 20 years old) what he had to say for himself.

The man replied,

'Well your Honour, it was like this, when the lady got on the bus, I couldn't help but notice her condition. She sat down under a sign that said, 'The Double Mint Twins are coming' and I grinned. Then she moved and sat under a sign that said, ' Logan 's Liniment will reduce the swelling' and I had to smile. Then she placed herself under a deodorant sign that said,

'William's Big Stick Did the Trick' and I could hardly contain myself.

But, Your Honour, when she moved the fourth time and sat under a sign that said, 'Goodyear Rubber could have prevented this Accident'..... I just lost it.!!!

'CASE DISMISSED!!'

A DIVISION OF RAPTURE LTD

A blonde gets home from work early & hears strange noises coming from the bedroom.

She rushes upstairs only to find her husband naked lying on the bed, sweating and panting.

'What's up?' she asks.

'I think I'm having a heart attack,' - cries the husband..

The blonde rushes downstairs to grab the phone, but just as she's dialing, her four-year-old son comes up

And says, "Mummy Mummy Aunty Shirley is hiding in the wardrobe & she has no clothes on"

The blonde slams the phone down and storms back upstairs into the bedroom right past her husband..

Rips open the wardrobe door and sure enough, there is her sister, totally naked and cowering on the floor.

'You rotten Bitch', she screams.

'My husband's having a heart attack, and you're running around naked playing hide and seek with the kids!!'

Club merchandise

Is great to see the club shirts at events as they are quite striking. Navy blue and yellow with the club logo on the front and 'HARBOUR CAPITAL CAR CLUB' in yellow on the back. If you would like one of these shirts they are only $45 each. I will be bringing them to events so come and see me or you can order via the website. We have hats as well which are $20 each in navy blue with the club logo on the front.

A crusty old biker out on a long summer ride in the country pulls up to a tavern in the middle of nowhere, parks his bike and walks inside.

As he passes through the swinging doors, he sees a sign hanging over the bar:

Cold Beer $2.00, Hamburger $2.25 Cheeseburger $2.50 Chicken Sandwich $3.50 Hand Job $50.00

Checking his wallet to be sure he has the necessary payment, the ole' biker walks up to the bar and beckons to the exceptionally attractive female bartender who is serving drinks to a couple of sun-wrinkled farmers.

She glides down behind the bar to the ole biker.

"Yes?" she enquires with a wide, knowing smile, "may I help you?"

The ole biker leans over the bar, "I was wondering young lady," he whispers, "are you the one who gives the hand-jobs?"

She looks into his eyes with that wide smile and purrs, "Why yes, yes, I sure am".

The ole' biker leans closer and into her left ear whispers softly, "Well, wash your hands real good, cause I want a cheeseburger".
